“ This is been added by Wanda Anderson one of the best memories I have of Marlene when she was younger was when daddy retired from the The Tennessee copper currently in Copperhill Tennessee. Daddy asked us what should he do take money or take the suit of clothes that they offered. Marlene quickly spoke up daddy take the money we can't eat the clothes. Always thinking ahead we always need food. And we all got a big laugh out of that. I love you Marlene I will miss you this is not Ended it's the begining.

“ Sis there is so many memories that it hard to say with out writing this page full. I loved your giggle and the way when you go to tell me something you would start telling it then take a break, like you were thinking, then lick your lips and start again and at the end you would giggle. That's the giggle I'll never forget. All the things we did as kids and especially the way you always bite your fingernails and dad did every thing he could to get you to stop. The laughter and giggles and tears we twins always shared. You were taken too early, too soon and you will be missed and sis You'll never be forgotten. I love you sis Rest In Peace

“ Marty, You were something else. All the times we would hang out and laugh and cut up and when we left it was with hugs and kisses. You would tell me things and I would say Marty just pray about it. And you would laugh with the laugh that only you could do. and say, Yea your right!; You were the best and always will be. I have so many great memories of us. One great memory was you tried to get me to go swimming with you and I said no way would I get into a swim suit and you just laughed and said, "SUN TAN" time! I already miss you so much that it hurt. I love you Sis. rest in Peace because you deserved it!

“ I can't accept the reality that you are really gone. I miss you so much and I love you dearly. There is no one like you Marty and there never will be. I keep shacking my head and saying, "This isn't real I will wake up in a minute and every thing will be the same!" But it wasn't. Marty, You always made me laugh and cry at the same time but the one thing I can say about you Marty, "Is that you were real! Bye Marty

Mary - January 04, 2020 at 06:54 PM

“ Mary this is like a dream a nightmare and I can't wake up she loved you so much and thank you for staying with me until it was so late and once we placed mom's hand over Tavies belly she left I still think she is here until I walk in her apartment and she's gone

“ I know what you mean Amy! I keep thinking it's not real! It can't be. But in reality it is. I pray for God to comfort us because Marlene has made it home with a Family reunion. I miss her so much it hurts and all I seem to do is cry

Mary Cronnon - January 05, 2020 at 05:06 PM

“ I was thinking of you today and a lot of memories came flooding back. One memory that I will always keep close to me forever is when you told Darlene, "I was your little buddy" that made me happy. Well Marty I will miss my Little Buddy always. There were times we didn't always agree but we always loved each other. Sis I love you and will miss you.
